9. Please note that the submission of PR application is by appointment only. To make an appointment, please visit our website at http://www.ica.gov.sg. On the date of your appointment, please arrive punctually to submit your application together with supporting documents personally to:

   Permanent Resident Services Centre
   Immigration & Checkpoints Authority
   ICA Building, 5th Storey
   10 Kallang Road
   Singapore 208718

10. Submission of application by post will not be accepted.

11. All information contained in the form must be complete, accurate and verifiable.
12. Applicant and sponsor may be required to furnish additional documents and information whenever necessary.

National Service Liability

13. Under the Enlistment Act, all male Singapore Citizens and Permanent Residents, unless exempted are liable to register for National Service (NS). Following the completion of full-time NS, they will be required to serve up to 40 days of Operationally Ready National Service (ORNS) per year for the duration of their ORNS training cycle till the age of 50 years (for officers) or 40 years (for other ranks).

14. Main applicants who are granted PR status under the Professionals /Technical Personnel and Skilled Workers (PTS) Scheme or the Investor Scheme are exempted from NS. Male children who are granted PR status under their parents’ sponsorship are liable for NS under the Enlistment Act. They are required to register for NS upon reaching 16 1/2 years old and will be scheduled for enlistment at the earliest opportunity upon reaching 18 years old. If they are pursuing full-time studies, deferment from full-time NS may be granted only if they meet the deferment conditions stipulated by the Ministry of Defence which can be found at http://www.ns.sg.

All NS-liable males aged 13 years old and above, are required to obtain an Exit Permit (EP) when travelling overseas for 3 months or more.

15. NS-liable PRs are expected to serve NS. Renouncing or losing one’s PR status without serving or completing full-time NS would have an adverse impact on any immediate or future applications to work or study in Singapore, or for Singapore citizenship or PR status. Renouncing or losing one’s PR status without serving or completing full-time NS may also adversely affect any immediate or future applications for renewal of Re-entry Permits made by one’s family members or sponsors.

16. Males who are granted Singapore PR, and who were previously Singapore Citizens or Singapore Permanent Residents, are liable to be called up for NS regardless of the type of PR status they have been granted. For further enquiries, please write to:-

Important Notes

17. The grant of permanent residence does not exempt an individual from registration with the relevant professional bodies or any other statutory conditions as required by legislation governing the regulation of their professions (e.g. doctors, lawyers, etc.).

18. Ex-Singapore Citizens and Ex-Singapore PRs who have withdrawn their CPF monies would have to refund the full CPF amount withdrawn if their PR application is approved. A letter of clearance from the CPF Board is required for completion of PR formalities. For further enquiries, please contact the CPF Board via the following avenues:

CPF Service Centres (you may visit www.cpf.gov.sg for the addresses of the five Service Centres and their operating hours)
Contact number: 1800-2271188
Email: closing-account@cpf.gov.sg

19. All correspondences will be sent to the sponsor’s residential address as registered in the sponsor’s Singapore identity card.

20. ICA may share your personal information with other Government agencies to process any applications you have made or to render you a service, so as to serve you in an efficient and effective way, unless such sharing is prohibited by legislation.

Warning

21. If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document in relation to any application, action will be instituted against you and you will be denied all immigration facilities. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by the law.
