His Majesty Al-Wathiqu Billah Tuanku Mizan Zainal Abidin
ibni Al-Marhum Sultan Mahmud Al-Muktafi Billah Shah,
The Yang di-Pertuan Agong XIII

Your Majesty

On behalf of the people of Singapore, I take great pleasure in conveying to Your Majesty and the people of Malaysia our best wishes on this special occasion of Malaysia's 50th Merdeka Day. Singapore joins you in rejoicing on this momentous day that marks a significant milestone in Malaysia's history.

Malaysia's first 50 years has been marked by remarkable progress and development. I have every confidence that Malaysia would continue to advance and prosper under Your Majesty's wise and gracious reign. I also believe that the close relationship that marks the history of both countries will continue to grow from strength to strength and be of mutual benefit to both countries and our peoples.

My wife and I would like to wish Your Majesty and Her Majesty, the Raja Permaisuri Agong, Tuanku Nur Zahirah, good health, happiness and success in your endeavours for Malaysia and your people.
